

Become a USATF CERTIFIED OFFICIAL

The Advantages

- Membership in an organization of people who care deeply about track and field and take responsibility for running meets safely and fairly
- Access to advanced officiating training
- Liability insurance for all meets you work, whether USATF-sanctioned or not.
- Authority to sign off on records

How to Become Certified

- Step One: Join USA Track and Field ($30/year), by going to www.pausatf.org, and clicking on “Join Now” [if you are already a member in another capacity—as a coach, for instance—skip this step]
- Take an Introductory Clinic ($35—includes USATF, NCAA and NFHS rule books—and certification). Register by going to www.pausatf.org, clicking on “Officials,” then “Direct link.”

Introductory Clinics are being given at:

- American River College, January 17
- Wilcox High School, Santa Clara, January 31
- Serra High School, San Mateo, February 15
- Oakmont High School, Roseville, February 21*
- North Salinas High School, Salinas, February 28
